Rent.com.au is proud to announce its partnership with the PPM Group for the prestigious 'Best of the Best' 2018 Property Management Awards for the third year running.

The third annual national awards, to be held on Queensland's Gold Coast on 17 June 2018 in conjunction with the PPM National Property Management Conference, aim to recognise outstanding achievement in residential property management at a national level. Entries are open to every agency and property management team member practicing in Australia.

Rent.com.au National Agent Services Manager, David Berridge praised the success of previous years' awards and said the company was proud to once again return as award partner in 2018.

"A strong customer focus has always been at the foundation of the value we bring to our customers," he said. "PPM Group's awards celebrate the very best of the property management industry today, recognising those with expertise, technique and passion in helping tenants into a home, and maximising investment return for owners," he said.

"This partnership with PPM Group is an important step towards the continued advancement and development of the property management industry and Rent.com.au is excited to continue its support of this important event."

This year's event will be held at Surfers Paradise Marriott on the Gold Coast, where property management professionals will be invited to come together to recognise the industry's top performers across seven categories.

PPM Group Managing Director, Debbie Palmer said receiving an award can give agents and their teams an edge to set them apart from their competitors, while gaining credibility in the marketplace.

"Receiving an award is one of the most sought-after career goals for property management team members and agencies," she said. "Our prestigious 'Best of the Best' event will recognise outstanding achievement on a national level."

The awards aim to encourage, recognise and promote excellence in the areas of service delivery, systems, technology, marketing, business development, personal achievement and best industry practices.

Category awards will be presented in PPMsystem Property Management Team of the Year (an exclusive member award); Property Manager of the Year; Business Development Manager of the Year; Leasing Consultant of the Year; Property Management Support Team Member of the Year; Property Management Client Service Award of the Year (agency); and Property Management Agency of the Year.

Agencies and property management team members may enter as many of the categories as they wish if they fit the criteria. Late entries submitted after the closing date (Friday, April 27 2018) will not be accepted.
